WELCOME TO TOLOSALDEA!

The region of Tolosaldea is home to 48,327 people from 68 different countries, and we want to greet you with a warm welcome. Tolosaldea is located in the Basque Country and our native language is Basque. Although Basque and Spanish are the two official languages of the region, the cultural diversity of the region means that other languages are also present.

Our region believes in gender equality, defends human rights for all, and promotes coexistence. We acknowledge diversity as one of people's most cherished assets and are convinced that mutual learning will improve us even better as a region. We want to build a community based on everyone's participation and to establish our project as a people rooted in solidarity.

This guide aims to welcome all newcomers to Tolosaldea. This guide also intends to promote our region and inform about the services and resources that are available here.

The first step, census registration

Census registration entails registering at the Town Hall where you live. It is a necessary administrative registration, free of charge, and is not linked to the residence permit. By transmitting your address, this register certifies your regular residence

This census registration allows you to benefit from certain public rights. Everyone, regardless of their administrative situation, must register.

Bear in mind that if you are not from the European Union and do not have a permanent residence permit, you must renew your census every two years. If you do not renew, you will be automatically deregistered.

¿Where do I go to get my census registration?

There are council offices where you can register your census or carry out other administrative procedures. In-person assistance is available from Monday to Friday from 09:00 to 14:00 in the morning.

The right to health care and the public health system. Osakidetza-Basque Health Service.

Everyone has the right, from the moment of census registration, to be assisted by the public health system (even if they do not have a residence permit). To do so, you should go to the health institution closest to your address. There, you will find information about your rights, and an Individual Health Card (Tarjeta Individual Sanitaria, TIS) will be issued.

If you do not have a census in a municipality within the Autonomous Community of the Basque Country, but you do have a report from an NGO, you should apply for a provisional Individual Health Card.

If you have a visa that has not expired or 90 days have not elapsed since your entry into Spain, you will not be able to receive health care, except for the following cases:

- If you have a favourable report from the basic social services.
- If you are pregnant and/or a minor and do not have private health insurance (travel or any other type) or public health insurance (such as the European Health Insurance Card).

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

ANDRAGORA, Tolosaldea women's association

ANDRAGORA, Tolosaldea's Women's House is a place to feel part of a community: to offer proximity and reassurance to all the women of the region so that they can be listened to and understood and feel safe and protected. To guarantee permanent spaces to raise awareness and feminist empowerment of women, such as the School of Empowerment.

In order to build networks among diverse women, to unite the forces of all women in the region and to strengthen the Feminist Movement. To develop a comprehensive perspective against male violence and to have a political impact from the perspective of social transformation in all social fields.

In general, the activities organised in ANDRAGORA, Tolosaldea's Women's Association, will be aimed at women over 16 years of age. As soon as the women have adopted the association as their own, mixed activities open to the general public will be organised. It will be open from Monday to Friday mornings and afternoons, and can be used for activities in line with the purpose of the Association.

Women's School of Empowerment (Tolosa Town Hall)

This space is designed to strengthen the empowerment and socio-political participation of women, in order to achieve a fairer, more plural and complete society. It is not a regular training place. We use the knowledge and methodology of collective and shared construction developed by the Feminist Movement in the School of Empowerment.

This methodology allows us to name, question and suggest solutions to the dependency that women and groups with sexual orientation or multiple sexual identities experience. It is about sharing experiences and knowledge, but also about enjoying one's body, producing discourses, art, culture and demands. In short, it is to undergo an experience that will change our perception of the world and equip us with the tools to change it.
